The Second New York Heavy Artillery will follow in a few days. This leaves only a few regular batteries in the defenses south of the Potomac. The President is said to have promised Governor Bramlette that Kentucky should at once be relieved from martial law. The removal of General Palmer from command is said to have also been determined upon. His successor is not named, but General Gordon Granger is, tor many reasons, most likely to be the man. A doubt begins to be entertained that the approaching elections in Virginia will meet with some difficulty by reason of the law requiring the Sterling's Ambrosia Manufacturing Commissioners of elections in the State to be appointed by State Courts, which as yet have not been restored.

All that remains of Kilpatrick's famous cavalry command in North Carolina is the Veteran Fifth Ohio, Col. Heath, whose headquarters are

LET THOSE WHO HAVE DOUBTED the virtues of BULL's CEDRON BITTERS, if any such there be, read the following certificate from gentlemen well known in this community, and doubt no more.

Its general introduction into the army will save the lives of thousands of our soldiers:

Louisville, June 3d, 1863. We, the undersigned, have seen the good effects of Dr. JOHN BULL'S CEDRON BITTESS in case of general debility and prostration of the system, and believe its general use would prevent disease and relieve much suffering. Among our soldiers particularly would this be the case, especially those who are exposed to the missmatic influences in the Southern climate.
